

I'm not robot!

About this Worksheet: This four kinds of sentences worksheet directs the student to read each sentence and add correct punctuation marks. Then, label each sentence as imperative, declarative, interrogative or exclamatory. Imperative sentences give commands or requests. Declarative sentences make statements. Interrogative sentences ask questions. Exclamatory sentences express strong feelings. This kinds of sentences worksheet gives good practice with identifying the different types of sentences in the English language. This worksheet is suitable for 6th grade, 7th grade and 8th grade. Let's take a look at sentences! With this writing resource, help your ELs familiarize themselves with the four sentence types: declarative, imperative, exclamatory, and interrogative. As an added challenge they will have to write sentences of their own! Statements (declarative sentences): express an idea. They end with a full stop (a period). Statements are the most common type of sentence. I went to the beach. Tina likes apples. Questions (interrogative sentences): ask for information. They end with a question mark (?). Where do you go? Does Tina like apples? Commands (imperative sentence): used to give instruction. They usually end with a full stop (period) but can also end with an exclamation mark (!). Take me to the beach. Pick an apple for Tina. Exclamations (exclamatory sentence): express strong emotion. They end with an exclamation mark (!). The beach was amazing! An apple just fell from the sky! Punctuation Pass!
